The Common Good and “The Commons”

Saturday, May 19, 2018 from 3:00 – 5:00 pm
Concord Hall, 1407 Chapala Street, Santa Barbara
Presenters: Maurice Bisheff and Don Wilson

In this forum, the theme of “the common good and the commons” will be explored. In this day and age the “commons” seems to be up for sale, and the conception and value of the common good are almost lost. This issue has been lucidly addressed by both Robert Reich and Vandana Shiva. During the forum, the Institute will screen clips from Vandana Shiva's IWC talk on “The Commons,” and clips of Robert Reich's comments about his 2018 book, The Common Good. Discussion of the concepts and theme of the common good will follow.
