FORUM

Discovering Freedom and Conscience

Saturday, November 16, 2019 from 2:00 – 4:00 pm
Concord House, 1407 Chapala Street, Santa Barbara
Presenter: Carolyn Dorrance

Freedom has many meanings and uses. It is much valued in verbal proclamations, but little understood in its depth and origin. The awakening of conscience, the intuitive knowledge of right and wrong, may give guidance to the use of freedom. Thereby, individuals and societies may benefit from the transformative infusions of ideas that reflect true and universal values. Discussion of the transformative possibilities of freedom and conscience in contemporary conditions will be the focus of this forum.
