Jazz du Jour

Saturday, April 20, 2019 from 3:00 – 5:00 pm
Concord Hall, 1407 Chapala Street, Santa Barbara
Presenter: Sandy Cummings

Jazz du Jour, led by vocalist Sandy Cummings and accompanied by Woody De Marco on keyboard and Hank Allen on bass, will present a program of standards. They will discuss what 'standard' jazz is, relative to other forms of the genre. The band will present music from the American Song Book. Composers such as George Gershwin, Cole Porter, Jimmy van Heusen, Duke Ellington, and the like will be the source of the music of the day. They will also demonstrate improvisation, styles, and how a group works together in a collaborative way to put their own stamp on the material. In addition, they will talk briefly about the history of the art form.
