The Modern Economy on Edge

Saturday, October 12, 2019 from 1:00 – 5:00 pm
Concord Hall, 1407 Chapala Street, Santa Barbara

A Two-Part Seminar:

Part 1: Challenges for the Survival of the Modern Economy

Speaker Peter Gibson Friesen

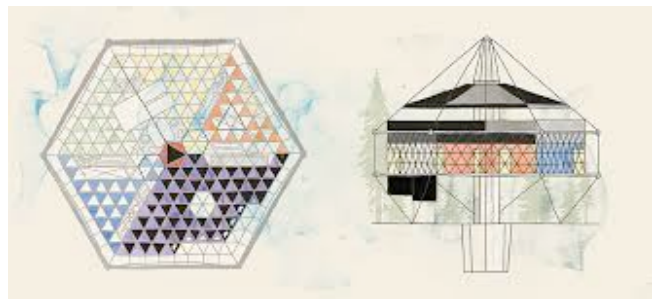

A wide-ranging analysis of the serious and deep problems that threaten the survival of the modern economy will be offered by Peter Friesen, a legal and organizational theorist and a distinguished practicing attorney.

Part 2: Revisiting the Vision and Values of Buckminster Fuller

Speaker Gary Milliken

Looking back to the values and proposals of a visionary who anticipated the social and economic needs only now being recognized, is a way of discovering creative possibilities for change. Discussion will be encouraged. Gary Milliken has had a long-standing interest in the ideas of Buckminster Fuller, volunteering at the Buckminster Fuller Institute in Los Angeles and joined the staff when the Institute moved to Santa Barbara.
